

WELCOME TO THE TEA HOUSE

茶 SIMPLY TEA

Sencha 煎茶

is a Japanese green tea prepared by steaming its leaves and rolling them into their signature needle-like shape. It is characterized by a distinctly bright, sweet aroma and flavor. This tea is steeped and served in a small teapot.

HojiCha ほうじ茶

originated in Kyoto and is distinguished from other Japanese teas because it is roasted in a porcelain pot over charcoal, whereas others are typically steamed. Bancha, a summer crop tea harvested after sencha, is fired at a high temperature, turning the leaves from green to brown. Hojicha has an earthy, nutty, slightly smoky flavor.

Genmaicha 玄米茶

is a Japanese green tea blended with toasted brown rice. It is sometimes referred to "popcorn tea" because some of the rice grains pop during the roasting process, they resemble popcorn. Genmaicha has a fresh, intense aroma and savory, nutty flavor.

Jasmine Tea ジャスミン茶

is a green tea scented with Jasmine flowers and boasts a slightly sweet flavor. Jasmine tea originated in China but is now enjoyed by tea lovers through the world.

抹茶

MATCHA

Matcha, is a finely milled powdered green tea that is the only form of tea served in tea ceremonies. Its high quality and distinctive taste make for a special treat enjoyed in small quantities, much like a shot of espresso. To balance matcha's more intense flavor, it is customarily served with popular confections or wagashi.
